THE FIRST AMERICANS: CITIES & EMPIRES

Chapter 1 Section 2

Background: Archaeologists think that the first Americans crossed the land bridge called the _____ linking Siberia and Alaska during the last _____.

These _____ migrated, following animals, which were their source of food. Eventually, due to changes in the environment and overhunting, these people had to begin to find other sources of food. They began to grow crops like _____.

Growing crops enabled these people to settle down and stay in one place.
