

Geography Jeopardy

Types of Maps

100- What are the two most common types of maps? Physical and Political

200- Which type of map is like a “treasure map” because it helps us get to our destination?
Road Map

300- Which type of map has a theme you can look at to get detailed information about something? Thematic Map

400- If you are trying to figure out what the weather is like in a specific location, which type of map would be the most helpful? Climate Map

500- Which type of map is it that hikers and geologist often use so they can see the elevation?
Topographic Map

Bonus: What is the first thing we should do when looking at a map? The title to figure out which type of map it is.

Physical Regions

100- Which region do we live in? Great Basin Region

200- What are the names of Utah’s three regions? Rocky Mountain, Great Basin, and Colorado Plateau

300- Which region is the Great Salt Lake in? Great Basin Region

400- Which region has the highest elevation? Rocky Mountain Region

500- Which region has very scenic views of rock? Colorado Plateau

Bonus: Which region are the Colorado and Green rivers in? Colorado Plateau

Public Lands

100- What is private land? Land that you own

200- Who owns National Parks? National Government

300- What percent of Utah’s land is owned by the government? 60%

400- Name the three main things that mined in Utah? Coal, Copper, and Salt

500- What does BLM stand for? Bureau of Land Management

Bonus: What did we learn about Grand Staircase- Escalante National Park? That President Clinton made this a protected National Monument. Some were happy to protect the land and others weren't happy because they wanted it to be used.

Climate

100- What is Utah's climate like? It changes often with four seasons.

200- Northern Utah is colder than Southern Utah because they are at a higher or lower elevation? Higher Elevation

300- What three factors affect Utah's climate? Latitude, Distance from the ocean, and Elevation

400- Which line of latitude affects how warm it is? The Equator

500- Why do we have four seasons in Utah? Because we are farther from the Ocean

Bonus: What is the Rain Shadow Effect? It is a system that shows how the weather changes the farther from the ocean we are or depending on what our elevation is.

Plants and Wildlife

100- What does domesticated mean? Those raised by people

200- What does indigenous mean? Natural/native to the land

300- What is an example of a domesticated animal? Answers will vary

400- What is an example of an indigenous animal to Utah? Answers will vary

500- What are the state bird, animal, tree, and flower? California Gull, Rocky Mountain Elk, Blue Spruce, and Sego Lily.

Bonus: